DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-44 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant teaches a method for recognizing speech comprising receiving an input speech vector, identifying a Gaussian distribution, determining an address from the input speech vector, wherein the address includes a code representing the input speech vector and a code representing the Gaussian distribution, using the address to retrieve a distance value for the Gaussian distribution from a table, determining a probability of the Gaussian distribution using the distance value, and, recognizing the input speech vector based on the determined probability. The cited prior art alone or in combination does not fairly disclose or suggest the claimed combination of features.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
